BOARD MEETING—The board of control held a meeting Wednesday afternoon, at which Gov. Hunt and Secretary Osborne were present.
Routine business was transacted.
RETURNS TO PHOENIX—Miss Ursula Webster employed at the corporation commission has returned from her vacation spent in the east.
She visited in Missouri and Kentucky.

TREASURER BACK—Mitt Simms, state treasurer has returned from a vacation spent on the coast. An investigation of his house, which had been ransacked in his absence, revealed that the only missing articles were a pair of trousers and a coat.
ORDERS ISSUED—The corporation commission yesterday issued orders on the switching limits at Phoenix, Humboldt and Prescott, order 459 regulating the shipments of exhibits to the state fair, and order 451 on whole grain movements from Mesa to Gila were issued.
COULDN'T STAND ALCOHOL—A man named Burns who has been in police and justices' courts of Phoeenix for several years on charges of drunkenness was committed to the asylum yesterday. It was gathered from what he said that his condition was the result of alcohol, to which he was limited after the state went dry.

BARKER COMPANY ENLARGES—On account of its marked increase in business and desire to be located where it might serve its local trade to better advantage, the John F.
Barker Company has moved its offices to 35 West Jefferson, in the building formerly known as the Majestic theater. It also has a large and commodious shipping room and cold storage department at its new location. The former quarters at Fourth avenue and Jackson will be retained for warehouse purposes, so that the company now has greatly increased facilities.

WORK OF THE APPRAISERS—W. A. Moody and Sam Y. Barkley of the board of land appraisers under the office of the land commissioner yesterday began the business of preparation for the work. Mr. Peterson, the third member of the board, has not yet arrived. The work of preparation at this stage consists in inquiring into the prices of things that constitute improvements, such as fencing, lumber and whatever else is used by lessees of state lands on their holdings. This part of the work of the appraisers, they say will be very simple. The real work will be when it comes to fixing the value of water rights.

DR. GODFREY OFF TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Will Represent This City at Gathering of Public Health Association

Representing the city of Phoenix as its official delegate, City Health Officer Edward S. Godfrey, Jr., left last evening for Rochester, N. Y., where he will be in attendance at the annual convention of the American Public Health Association. The work to be taken up at this convention is the utmost importance as practically every problem confronting municipalities with relation to the health of the citizens, will be considered, and the best thought of men of international reputation brought forward.
Particular interest with relation to Phoenix will probably be found in the discussions concerning the regulation of the public milk supply. Dr. Godfrey feels that the good to be attained from attendance during these discussions will be inestimable to this city. He will be prepared to tell the convention what Phoenix is doing in the matter of milk regulation and bacteriological examinations.
He expects to be absent for at least two weeks.

DAUGHTERS OF CALEDONIA—The Daughters of Caledonia will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Eugene McGuire, 61 West Holly street.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS—There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for the following: Weston W. Carpenter, Ed Davis, Teresa Valdez and J. Hirsch.

A SICK PHOENIX BOY—R. L.
Balke has returned to the city from Prescott, where Mrs. Balke and his son Otto are staying. The latter is quite ill, so that Mr. Balke will return north in a day or two.

DANCE IS POSTPONED—The dance that was to have been held in Patrick's Hall last night by the Temple Building club, an organization of the colored Masons of Phoenix, was postponed on account of the rain until tomorrow night.

ARIZONA PATENTEES—Hazzard, Berry & Miller, the pioneer patent agency of Los Angeles, has received by wire from Washington, notice of the issuance yesterday of patents to the following: Phoenix, John L.
Clark, wheel; Nogales, John A.
Adams, air valve.

RETURNED FROM NORTH—Mrs.
E. W. Wells arrived yesterday from Flagstaff, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lockett, the past month. While there she visited the Grand Canyon, Petrified Forests and Cliff Dwellings, and attended the Snake Dance at Wapahuti.

CHIEF CLERK MEAD—Chief Clerk L. J. Mead of the Salt River project arrived yesterday, and got busy. Coming here direct from Uncompahgre, Colorado, he found right smart warm for a few hours, and as he says, was compelled to discard his coat for the first time during working hours this whole summer.

THEY RUN HIM OUT—Jake Miller has returned from his vacation in the White Mountains, he came sooner than he was expected to come and sooner than he himself expected to come. The rest of the campers in that vicinity as well as the natives deported him. He had fished Stone-man's Lake dry; or so nearly dry, that it was estimated that not more than four fish remained in it.

MOTOR TO CANYON—A good sized party will leave Friday for an extended trip north. Among them will be Mr. and Mrs. George A.
Gushing, and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. August Heglund, their daughters, Kathryn and Ella, and son Carl. They will stop at Prescott, Ash Fork and Flagstaff, and during their tour will visit Mary Lake for the camping and fishing and the Grand Canyon for its view.

HEALEY HELD—James J. Healey was given a preliminary examination yesterday before Justice De Souza on charges of forgery and false impersonation. The complaint was made by E. W. Moore his partner in some-mining properties, who said that Healey had forged his name to a deed conveying to him Moore's interest in the property and then representing to a notary the said deed.
Moore. Another notary testified that Healey had called upon her and in her presence signed his partner's name. Healey was held in the sum of $500.

LUTHERANS CHANGE PLACE OF WORSHIP—Owing to the fact that the day school of Seventh Day Adventists begins soon making it impossible to use the room for church purposes, the Grace Evangelical Lutheran congregation, which has been worshipping at Tenth and Pierce streets, will hereafter hold service in Knights of Pythias Hall, above Donofrio's, on East Washington street. Bible school at 4:45 a. m.
Morning worship at 11. No evening service until further notice. All members and friends of the parish kindly note this change of place of worship.

NOT THE SOLE OWNER—In a statement printed in The Republican yesterday morning regarding the movements of Perry M. Williams it was rather loosely mentioned that he was "the owner of Maricopa." As a matter of fact, though Mr. Williams has been a resident of Maricopa ever since H. R. Patrick began the construction of the Grand Canyon, and though he is the owner of much valuable property in the Salt River Valley north of Phoenix, Mr. Williams does not own much of Maricopa.
There are several property owners there and among the heaviest and one of the oldest in point of ownership is J. V. Edwards.

SUMMERING
ARIZONIANS

Miss Nellie B. Wilkinson of North Second avenue, is registered at the Maryland apartments, Long Beach.

Mrs. Fannie A. Thew and daughter of Tempe who have been spending the summer on the coast, have returned to their home.

Ulah M. Hudlow has left Medford, Oregon, and is located for the present at Winslow, Arizona.

Mrs. Mary McDaniel of North Sixth street returned yesterday from Long Beach, where she passed the summer.

Dr. Willard Smith has returned from Iron Springs, where he spent the last few months.

Andrew Downing will return in a few days from an extended vacation spent in the middle west.

H. Greenbaum will return today from Los Angeles where he has been spending the summer.

Geo. Seidel of South First avenue returned yesterday from a four weeks' vacation spent with his parents in Chicago.

Mrs. H. M. Galliver will return to her home, 819 North Third avenue, from Long Beach, where she has been spending the summer.

Wm. Krueger returned yesterday from Prescott where he has been spending the summer and is located at his home on Clarendon avenue.

HILL GRANT—In Judge Parker's court late Tuesday afternoon was solemnized the marriage of R. Hill and Mrs. May Grant, both well known in this city. Mr. Hill is proprietary of the Grand Avenue Wood Yard and has other extensive property interests here. He has been a resident of Phoenix for many years.
Mrs. Hill will be remembered as Miss May Keating. Mr. and Mrs. Hill have already gone to housekeeping at 319 Grand avenue, where they will be pleased to receive their many friends.

HIS ARIZONA VACATION—County Treasurer George MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald have returned from their annual vacation in the Mountains. There are a good many people who talk about spending their vacations in Arizona, but most of them talk about it merely for the consumption of their neighbors. Mr.
MacDonald does not talk about it much, but he does it a great deal.
While there she visited the Pacific coast for twenty-seven years and he rather thinks that he would find many surprising changes in Los Angeles. This year he thought he would like to see the exposition, but at the last moment he and Mrs. Macdonald decided that they would find more enjoyment in the Arizona mountains.

WHIP, STONES, POLICE—George Coke, driving a lively horse on East Monroe street yesterday afternoon, encountered William Avant who accused him of trying to kill the animal.
Coke struck Avant over the head with a whip and Avant, dis-mounting from a bicycle he was riding, returned the attack with a fusillade of stones. Coke drove after Avant, who kept at a safe distance from him. When Coke got into his buggy again, Avant sent more stones in his general direction.
Coke then resorted to the same weapons. The affair continued for several blocks and people living between Monroe street and the McDowell road on Eleventh street, telephoned to the police that two negroes were trying to kill each other. Chief Brisbold and Policemen Wilkerson and Stratton went after the belligerents who landed them in the city jail, where they were offered their release upon the posting of a fifteen dollar guarantee each that they would appear in police court today to answer the charge of disorderly conduct.

FAMOUS ARMY ADVANCES

The swiftness of the recent Russian advance is in keeping with their traditions for good marching, as exemplified in the long journey of Suryoff's army from Russia to Italy in 1790 and of Kutusoff's forces during the invasion of 1812. In this, as in other matters of warfare, however, the record seems to be with Napoleon.
In 1805 he crossed the Rhine on September 26th, was in Vienna on November 13th, and on December 2d crushed the united armies of Russia and Austria at Austerlitz. Almost incredibly swift was Napoleon's swoop on Prussia in the following year, when, crossing the Elbe on October 9th, he defeated Hohenlohe's army at Jena, on the 14th and was in Berlin on the 25th with all Prussia at his feet.
Three years later he broke even these records by returning from France to Spain on April 17th, rushing to the Austrian frontier, defeating the enemy five times in as many days, and entering Vienna on May 13th.

DARDANELLES CAMPAIGN AND WHISKY SHIPMENT

How the Two May Be Linked Together

An incident of the defense of Kadomato, a Japanese living near Glendale, who was held for trial on the charge of procuring a case of whisky to be sent into this state, may have a bearing upon an Associated Press dispatch printed by The Republican yesterday morning saying it was possible that the Japanese would assist in the attempts to force the Dardanelles.
Kadomato was arrested about a week ago when he called for a box of whisky which had come to him at Glendale. He said that he had not ordered it, but that it had probably been sent to him by a friend.
The defense now claims to have a letter written to Kadomato from a Japanese army officer from San Francisco, saying that in consideration of kindness shown him by Kadomato while he was in Phoenix and for assistance rendered him when he was recalled to Japan, he had sent him present from Los Angeles.
The army officer had been a visitor of the Japanese colony in the vicinity of Phoenix for some time and had expected to remain longer, but he had been hurriedly summoned to rejoin the army.
